Andy Tang

18 Covington Ct. (908)494-0193
East Brunswick, NJ 08816 andytang@eden.rutgers.edu
http://www.berrypicking.net/qualification

Objective

- To obtain a position that could apply my knowledge, experience on the area of Library and Information science.

Core Qualifications

- Highly proficient, deep understanding on the information technology employed by library and corporation.
- Deep understanding on database environment, familiar with RDBMS building.
- Deep understanding on linux system.
- Strong ability on retrieving and representing the digital resources on internet.
- Thorough experience on the web development by using professional software.
- Deep understanding on the knowledge management and learning curve.
- Ability to work effectively as a member of a team, and pushed the team work in advance.

Working Experience

American Civil Liberties Union
Intern on archival and record management August 2008 – Now

Maintained in-house archives and records. Built RDBMS to improve the work efficiency. Provided record services to ACLU staff. Responsible for the information integration.

- Analyzed the factors which affect the efficiency and precision of information retrieval and reference service, designed blueprint to upgrade existing DBMS.
- Employed XML technique to transfer data among heterogeneous systems.
- Cleaned the redundant metadata in existing database by using coding technique and database procedural language.
- Managed the archives, built the record retention program, and provided reference services.

Alcohol Studies Library (Rutgers University)
Intern on digital library project May 2008 – Now

Integrated the resources and information on alcohol studies. Built knowledge management system to improve the CAS competitiveness.

- Collected and reorganized the academic resources from the internet. Provided professional reference services.
- Deep diving into the information portal building and information services.
- Applied Java and JavaScript on web page, employed XSLT, XPath, XQuery to process the date contained in XML.
- Provided design of CAS website as an information architect, built web page span whole website. (http://alcoholstudies.rutgers.edu/)
- Transferred data, and maintained databases among InMagic, Microsoft ACCESS, and MySQL platforms.

Shenhua Group, China (Listed Company)
Information Manager Dec 2004 – Aug 2007

Managed the collection of data and information originated from competitors and environments. Responsible for generating high value strategic reports. Reports are sent directly to decision making layer. One report directly resulted in a decision to purchase a large-scale energy company, located near Central Asia, which leads to a 10 percent profit increase.

- Collected information by using web spider technique.
- Analyzed the competitor's information by using PEST and SWOT method.
- Provided reference services and analysis reports aimed at improving the strategic decision-making level and defeating opponents.
- As a member of ERP team, framed the system from a strategic point of view, and provided suggestions on knowledge establishment and information processing view, generated the potential profit of 20%.

Shenhua Group, China (Listed Company)
Junior HR Manager, Junior Information Manager July 1995 – Nov 2004

Maintained, collected, and analyzed the Human Resources information. Provided the reports to CEO on the layer of strategy. Built the HR management system to improve efficiency and effectiveness. Saved human cost of 15% by providing a HR report focused by reallocating work force.

- Built group headquarter Human Resources management （HRP) system, range from information automatic collection to labor cost analysis.
- Maintained HRP in fluent operation
- Provided in-depth reports on HR management.

Education

- Master of Library and Information Studies, Dec. 2008, Rutgers University, School of Communication, Information and Library Studies (ALA-accredited institution), New Brunswick, New Jersey.
- B.S. Statistics, 1995, Beijing University of Technology, Beijing, China.

Professional development:

- Proficient in RDBMS Design, Linux server maintenance, Heterogeneous Databases Interface design, Database Administration on SQL, Oracle handling, Linux+Apache+MySQL+PHP technique, Integrated Library System Building, Record Management, Information Architecture Analysis, Search Engine Design, Web Based Information Management, XML data processing, InMagic handling.
- Mastered web portal design, back end database architecture construction.
- Deep understanding on the reference and record management, information organization, cataloging; deep diving into index and business databases, such as Wilson, EBSCO, LexisNexis, U.S. Congressional Serial set, Global Legal information Network, and so on.

For detailed information, please go to http://www.berrypicking.net/qualification
Reference provided upon request.